

After looking at this petition, I believe that it is a waste of time for the FCC to even consider this. With the lowering of the Morse Code requirement for HF privileges, the expansion of Novice operating parameters is not needed. I urge the FCC to deny this petition.